BDL's Vigilance Awareness Week culminates on a high note

Vigilance Awareness Week – 2025 observed at BDL from 27 Oct to 3 Nov 2025 culminated on a high note today.

Shri V V Lakshminarayana, IPS (Retd) delivered the keynote address on this year's Vigilance Awareness theme, "Vigilance: Our Shared Responsibility," at the valedictory function held at BDL today.

"Chetana - 2025", an annual newsletter published by Vigilance Department of BDL, was released by the Chief Guest Shri V V Lakshminarayana, IPS (Retd) in the presence of Commodore A Madhavarao, CMD, BDL, Shri D V Srinivas Rao, Director (Technical), Shri G Gayatri Prasad, Director (Finance), Smt Spurthi Reddy, IRS, Chief Vigilance Officer, Cmde Girish R Pradhan (Retd), Executive Director & Unit Head BDL, Kanchanbagh Unit and other senior officials from BDL.

BDL's Vigilance Awareness Week, this year, featured a host of activities including Vendors Meet, Gram Sabha, Walkathon, Interactive sessions & Competitions, which aimed to promote vigilance awareness among stakeholders.

Shri V V Lakshminarayana, IPS (Retd) in his address highlighted the importance of integrity and vigilance. He narrated an anecdote of Sardar Vallabhai Patel popularly known as 'Patel Test', a valuable reminder to apply integrity to our actions. He emphasized that integrity means doing the right thing, even when no one is watching, because our conscious is always watching us. Let's strive to make vigilance, a habit in our work, a culture in our organisation, and a commitment to our nation, he added.

Commodore A Madhavarao (Retd), CMD, BDL, expressed that all individuals should act as vigilance officers in discharging their day to day duties.

Smt Spurthi Reddy, IRS, CVO, BDL gave an overview of vigilance awareness activities held as a part of Vigilance Awareness Week – 2025 and thanked employees for their overwhelming participation in the events organized during the week.
